Noah,

Apologies for not getting this to you sooner. We are going to be stopping at Unitas Global on our tour today. We should be there at approximately 2:15. However, we have to make this a very quick stop because of a hard deadline later in the tour. Nevertheless, we would definitely like to have you or Blair say a few words to the group. Would it be possible to do that without having us have to come in to your office? Perhaps over on Spring where we will be entering for Unitas?

Let me know what you think. And again, apologies for the late notice.
